

Richard Leung JP is a member of Des Voeux Chambers. He has been at the Bar for over 20 years. He specialises in commercial law, company law, construction, arbitration and civil law. His business acumen and thought-out advice has resulted in a healthy list of predominantly local clientele.

Richard has been involved in a slew of cases, which range from contentious estate duty matters to shareholder/director conspiracy.

His company law and civil expertise is augmented not only by his accounting background but also by his leading arbitration and Company Secretaryship credentials. Richard is a Chartered Arbitrator and Accredited Mediator. He was a Past President of the Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries and a Past Chair of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (East Asia Branch) (2015/16 and 2016/17). Richard was also appointed Chairman of the Appeal Tribunal Panel (Building Ordinance) (2018-2021 and is a Member of the Disciplinary Board Panel, Land Survey Ordinance (2019-2021).

Richard is a frequent presenter at various seminars that intersect with mediation including company law covering capital reduction, schemes of arrangement, privatization and corporate governance as well as taxation topics before the Board of Review.

On 1 July 2018, Richard became a Justice of the Peace.

DVC's members win commendation in the commercial, arbitration and mediation spheres for variously being able to "stand [their] ground relentlessly," for being "sound tactician[s] with a keen sense of strategy" and for being "smooth yet forceful advocate[s] who know how to cut to the chase" and for being "quick-witted, extremely effective advocate[s]."

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS ASIA PACIFIC 2019-2020

After obtaining First Class honours in both architecture and law from the University of Hong Kong and the Bachelor of Civil Law from the University of Oxford, Calvin Cheuk joined Des Voeux Chambers in 2006.

Calvin has since developed a broad practice with special emphasis in construction disputes. He is regularly instructed in disputes relating to large infrastructure and construction projects in Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan and the PRC, including cross-harbour tunnel, casinos, coal mines, commercial complexes, hotels and residential developments.

Calvin has appeared in various levels of the courts, including the Court of Final Appeal. Calvin is also regularly instructed to appear in arbitrations. He is the Vice-Chairman of the Society of Construction Law Hong Kong and the Hon. Secretary of the Committee on Construction Law of the Hong Kong Bar Association. He was also appointed as a Deputy District Judge in 2018.

Calvin Cheuk is recognized as "an extremely hard worker who really gets into the detail of a case" say sources, who compliment his "meticulous drafting and preparation."
